

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time of the Year

(Isaiah 53:10-11, Hebrew 4:14-16, Mark 10:35-45)

THEME: You Have A Living God Who Cares For You!

One of the things that, make us to be in love with another person, are good qualities we see in him or her. Like wise in our relationship with God, many things attract us to Christ.

When ever, I think of Christ, I see Him, a loving and caring Father, one whose authority to save is absolute (Rev. 1:17-18). Our redeemer and a compassionate God, with a heart full of mercy and love towards us—his children. In him, we see one who is always ready to suffer for us--one who bears our burdens and iniquities, that we may live and be saved.

Jesus, came into the world to cleanse us from our sins and make us righteous and blameless before God Almighty. “I came that, they may have life, and have it in the full.” (Jn.10:10)

The letter to the Hebrews (Heb. 4:14-16) reminds us, that, in Christ Jesus, we have a High Priest, who is willing and ready to sympathize with our weaknesses. Jesus is always here, for us. Jesus wants to help us and make us happy. He wants to heal our sicknesses and infirmities.

Beloved brothers and sisters in Christ, today is a great day of blessings from God. Let us with hearts full of joy, approach Jesus, our Savior and Redeemer. He will make us clean again, He will heal and make us happy once more.

Jesus is in our midst again today, to bless us with peace, joy, happiness, healing and love, that is divine. Let us open the doors and windows of our lives and say with Faith, “My Lord Jesus, come in and dwell with me and my family forever.” “If anyone ... opens the door, I will come into his house...”(Rev.3:20)
