

2nd Sunday in Lent

(Genesis 15.5-12, 17-18, Philippians 3.17-4.1, Luke 9.28.36)

THEME: Let Us Experience The Glory Of God Through Our Prayers.

Brothers and sisters in Christ, I recall last weekend, the call for our attention on the need for us, children of God, to use the period of Lent to draw ourselves closer to our God. The readings of the 2nd Sunday of Lent offers "prayer" as the best opportunity for us to achieve this in our lives.

For prayer brings us into the presence of our God. It offers us the opportunity to communicate and interact with our God. Prayer also offers us that chance to present our thanks and petitions to God. Let us, see this Lenten Season as a wonderful opportunity to come closer to our God through our prayers and self-denial.

Our Father in Faith, Abraham, through his strong faith in God and through prayers was able to receive a lot of blessings for his family and generation forever. For, in our prayers, we need to come to God with Faith, we need to believe and have that confidence in God; that, with Him as our Father, our prayers will be answered.

In our gospel narrative today, through prayers, the apostles were able to behold the glory of God with their master, our Lord Jesus.

Through prayers, we shall experience the glory of God, through his blessings in our lives.

This is our time again, this great Season of Lent, to make out our time for God in prayers. May we continue to keep awake, through our prayers and continue to witness the marvelous mercies and blessings of God in our various situations.

Brothers and sisters, prayers can transform our lives for good. Your ill-health could be transformed to a healthy body. Your sinful situation could become a righteous situation. Your pitiful situation could become a blessed one. Together with strong faith in God, let us give God a chance in our lives to transform us, through PRAYERS.
